

List Disclaimers:

1. Kitec plumbing was not installed in every home in each of these developments. Only homes in which Kitec plumbing was installed are included in this Class Action.
2. An inspection of each home is the only way to definitively determine whether a particular home has Kitec and is part of this class action.
3. Not all class homes are included on this list. Only developments with more than 10 homes are included.
4. Due to numerous difficulties in litigating this class action (i.e., bankrupt entities, dissolved entities, inadequate insurance, etc.), not all class homes will receive replumbs at no cost to the homeowners. The litigation results will vary for each home.
5. Class Counsel is not able to discuss litigation details regarding a particular home with anyone other than the current homeowner. All inquiries regarding specific homes and litigation details must be made by the homeowner. Others may obtain information regarding the case from our website (www.plumbingdefect.com) or the documents on file with the Court.
